

Day One in Pikeville - Pike County and Eastern Kentucky

2:00 p.m. - A guide w/videos of Loretta Lynn Bio

3:00 p.m. Arrive at Butcher Hollow Coal Mining General Store #5 - no charge for coach

3:15 p.m. Tour of Loretta Lynn's childhood home - $5.00 each

4:30 p.m. Leave for Pikeville, two guides - videos of the Hatfield/McCoy behind the scenes of

5:30 p.m. Arrive at the Hilton Garden Inn of Pikeville to check in 6:30 p.m. Dinner at the Hilton Garden Inn - entertainment NO charge, live country music.

8:30 p.m. Hit the elevator button for a good night's rest

Day Two in Pikeville - Pike County and Eastern Kentucky

7:00 a.m. till 8:15 a.m. Breakfast at the hotel

8:45 a.m. Leave for Williamson for Hatfield and McCoy Country Museum

You will see items that were actually touched by Devil Anse Hatfield, Johnse Hatfield, Sid Hatfield, Henry Ford and other significant historical figures.

Items on display include the not-guilty verdict for Sid Hatfield in his trial for the Matewan Massacre shootout, Henry Ford's scrip making machine, the burial records for Devil Anse, Johnse, Cap and Levicy Hatfield, the death certificate and burial records for Mamie Thurman, the deed for the contested 5,000 acres of land that some believe started the Hatfield-McCoy Feud, a gun found at the site of the Feud's climatic battle – The Battle of Grapevine Creek and much more. Plus there will be items as seen on American Pickers and authenticated by the Antiques Roadshow.

Other attractions include the interior of a 1920's coal camp house, the Underground Theater that looks like the inside of a coal mine, the Bee Ward Coleman collection – one of the largest collections of coal mining artifacts anywhere in the country and unique displays about the Hatfield McCoy Feud, coal mining and our region's rich history.

9:15 a.m. Hatfield and McCoy Country Museum - $4.00 each

10:45 a.m. Leave for lunch

11:00 a.m. South Williamson Steak House - buffet $11.50 each includes tax

12:30 p.m. Leave for the McCoy Well in Pike County -

One of the Hatfield-McCoy Feud Tour's most important sites, the Randolph McCoy homeplace features the well where the McCoy family drew water, as well as an outline of where the McCoy cabin once stood, before the Hatfields attacked and burned it to the ground. National Geographic Channel's "Diggers" explored the property and found many artifacts that most likely came from the attack that claimed so many McCoy lives. Visitors are welcome to come and discover for themselves how the infamous attack may have come about, and see the beautiful property that was once home to the McCoy clan. Artifacts are available for display.

12:45 p.m. Historic McCoy Well site and Homeplace - no charge for coach

1:15 p.m. Leave for Pikeville Dueling Barrels Brewery and Distillery

1:45 p.m. Pikeville - Dueling Barrels Brewery and Distillery - admission fee

3:00 p.m. Hotel for rest time

4:00 p.m. Leave for the Breaks Interstate Park

4:45 p.m. Breaks Interstate Park, “Grand Canyon of the South” overlook tour –

Conveniently located around 35 minutes from Pikeville City on the Kentucky/Virginia state line, the Breaks Interstate Park is lovingly known as the “Grand Canyon of the South”. Like many beautiful locales within Pike County, Breaks Interstate Park provides visitors with an outdoor adventure and first hand nature experience that they will never forget. At the center of this marvelous locale resides a 250 million year old, 1600 feet deep canyon that is the largest canyon east of the Mississippi, which contains more than 13 miles of hiking trails.

5:45 p.m. Dinner at the Rhododendron Restaurant (Breaks Interstate Park) featuring a scenic mountain view - $15.00 each including tip, tax and gratuity, two meats, three vegetables, salad, drink and desert

7:00 p.m. Leave Breaks interstate Park for a 10 minute trip to Elkhorn city

7:10 p.m. Elkhorn City - Artists Collaborative Theatre (ACT)

Nestled in the beautiful Appalachian mountains of Elkhorn City, KY, ACT’s entire team is made up of local actors, including the cast, crew, and operational staff. They pride themselves on showcasing the incredible talent Pike County has to offer. Additionally, ACT is honored to claim the title of Kentucky’s most award-winning community theatre. At the Kentucky Theatre Association’s annual Community Theatre Competition, ACT took home more awards than any other competitor. Most recent awards include Best Actress and Best Costumes, both earned at the 2016 Kentucky Theatre Association competition. These awards speak to the level of artistry and enthusiasm ACT puts into each production. Artists Collaborative Theatre’s mission is to create, promote, present, and advance cultural exposure to the performing arts for area residents and visitors alike. Celebrating their 15th anniversary in 2017, ACT achieves their mission by producing top quality productions that continue to inspire and entertain. At ACT, every play put on stage is “as rich as life!”

7:30 p.m. Elkhorn City's Artist Collaborative Theatre coach discount - $9 each

9:30 p.m. Leave for hotel in Pikeville

10:00 p.m. Arrive at the hotel

Day Three in Pikeville - Pike County - Eastern Kentucky

7:00 a.m. Breakfast Hilton

8:30 a.m. Big Sandy Heritage Museum - Cut-through Project display, farming tool collection, Hatfield and McCoy items, country music highway memorabilia - $3.00 each

9:30 a.m. Pikeville Farmers Market - live music, fresh fruits, vegetables and local arts and crafts in the farmer's market pavilion - no charge for coach

10:30 a.m. Shopping on the Historic Second Street of Pikeville - Mickeys, Ritchie's, Rustic Roots and CC Belle - no charge + free tour guide

11:30 a.m. Pikeville Cut-Through Project - overlooks Pikeville City and the mountains - no charge

12 noon - Lunch in Pikeville before departing?